

Who is Ken Neff?

First and most importantly, Ken is a disciple of Jesus Christ.

Ken is just a guy called and gifted by God to serve. He is a husband, father, father-in-law, and “Pop” (Grandfather). God has chosen to gift Ken in the areas of teaching, organization, problem solving, communication, and music. With these gifts, he (Ken) has served God, individuals, businesses, churches, denominations, government agencies, schools, and colleges.

Ken spent 35 years working at a Technology company retiring as Vice President. He has served several pastoral roles (Education, Adult Ministries, and Senior Pastor). Musically, Ken has performed professionally with several musical groups in Columbus. He was the Band Leader for the Buckeye Ballroom Big Band and Manager for the Music City Band. He currently performs with the River Ratz (a 9 piece Dixie Land/Swing group).

Ken is a published author. He has authored a devotional series, for books of the Bible, called “Thoughts On” which currently covers all of the Apostle Paul’s books in the New Testament.

Ken and his wife, Dianne, live in Urbana, Ohio where Dianne is a professional paper crafter and Ken works as an independent consultant, writing, teaching, play golf, and enjoying sitting on the porch with friends and neighbors. Ken will be playing his Trumpet in 10 am service on Oct 9th.
